

Requesting Person/Organization Waiver and Release of Liability

InKind Baking Project | Updated March 6, 2022

To the best of our abilities, we will provide accurate and timely information to the InKind Baking Project including, but not limited to: number of participants, required omission or substitution of specific ingredients, type and form of baked goods requested, drop-off times and locations, and any required health and safety protocols.

We will honor our commitment to be available during our requested drop-off times at the specified location, and provide a contact number to facilitate the drop-off.

We understand that the InKind Baking Project is a network of volunteers and that the organization will do its best to match us with a volunteer baker.

We acknowledge that submitting a request does not guarantee that the event will be accepted or listed by the InKind Baking Project, nor does it guarantee that a member of the network will volunteer.

We understand that the greater advanced notification and flexibility given in the baked goods requested and the time available for drop off will increase our chances in soliciting a volunteer baker.

We acknowledge that any health and safety protocols, either from our self or organization or required by the InKind Baking Project, may mean that—with little or no notice—a volunteer baker may not be able to meet their obligation due to their own health situation.

We acknowledge that volunteers produce baked goods in home kitchens and that the InKind Baking Project does not participate in vetting or monitoring of the ability of its volunteers nor the quality of their kitchens or donations.

We acknowledge that each donation will contain a label with a name or description of the baked goods, a list of major ingredients (including those with any identified allergens, such as gluten, eggs, dairy, and nuts), and the words, "These items were baked in a home kitchen."

We acknowledge that there are inherent risks to our self or organization, including any staff and clients served, in accepting and serving goods baked in a home kitchen, including in the transportation and drop-off of goods.

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the volunteer bakers, the InKind Baking Project, and CultureTrust Greater Philadelphia against any and all claims, suits, or actions of any kind whatsoever for liability, damages, compensation, or otherwise brought by or against our organization or anyone on our behalf, including attorney's fees and any related costs, if litigation arises pursuant to any claims made by or against our organization or anyone else acting on our behalf.

-InKind-
baking project